

Berkeley (Calif.) Police Department

Transcript of a telephone call made by resident Peter Cukor on a non-emergency line on February 18, 2012 at 8:45 p.m. Mr. Cukor was murdered at about 9:00 p.m.

Mr Cukor: "Yes there is a gentleman, a young man hanging around my property. I think he is a transient. I'm not sure.

Dispatcher: What is the address sir?

C: 2 Park Gate Berkeley.

D: And he is just standing around there?

C: Yeah. He says that he lives here. He wants to come in which is very strange. I'd like an officer up here right away.

D: Sure. What race is he?

C: African American.

D: He's a black male. How old does he look?

C: I'd say he's in his 20s.

D: How tall is he?

C: About six-four.

D: Is he small, medium or heavy build?

C: Medium.

D: What's the color of his shirt or jacket?

C: He's wearing a dark color hoodie.

D: And the color of his pants?

C: Well they're dark I believe.

D: So he's just standing there stating he lives there?

C: He's looking for someone named Zooey. He's pretty spacey.

D: Oh, okay.

C: Now Park Gate is just right at the fire station.

D: Sure.

C: My driveway is just before you get to the fountains.

D: Okay, may I have...

C: It's not on Park Street, it's on Shasta just before you get to the fountains [unintelligible].

D: And may I have your name sir?

C: Peter last name spelled C-U-K-O-R.

D: And your phone number please.

C: 841-XXXX

D: Okay, we'll try to get somebody out there as soon as we can.

C: Thank you.

D: Thank you. Bye-bye.
